UKIAH, MENDOCINO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, SEPTEMBER 4, 1935 Eight Pages VOLUME LVIII No. 16

I SEE BY THE PAPERS

A Hollywood physician kept a little Rhesus monkey frozen stiff five days and then brought it back to life. The doctor is experimenting with cures for tuberculosis and other human diseases by artificial freezing, but he also may be bringing closer another dream of some scientists—hibernation for human beings. You don't like the winter—well, anyway, not much. When this dream comes true you may hie yourself to your rented safety deposit vault in the morgue, crawl in and have animation suspended until May 1. No coal bills to worry about, and no worry about Junior getting a cold; for Junior and his sister and mama will be on adjoining shelves. Or perhaps it is summer, with hay fever, and golf, and the story of how-I-spent-my-vacation that you abominate, so reverse the process. Since it will be artificial, anyway, it will be as easy, if paradoxical, to "hibernate" in summer as in winter.

It's a grand idea. The more we think about it, the better we like it. Live in the season that one enjoys and be virtually nonexistent the rest of the year. One wouldn't miss much because a large part of the population would be doing the same thing, and by saving wear and tear on the human system the span of life would be doubled at least—

When H. N. Wade, manufacturer of Geneva, Illinois, recently complained to the board of county commissioners sitting as a board of equalization, that his taxes were too low by $175, they thought at first he was merely trying to be funny. After looking into Mr. Wade's complaint, however, they found he was correct—the county had erred in his favor. But it was too late to change the records. So Mr. Wade announced he would turn the $175 over to charity.

The most refreshing part of the incident is that at a time when there are assertedly so vast a percentage of people trying to avoid paying what they consider an excess burden of taxes, there should be even one man to come forward and assert he is not paying enough. Certainly, honesty is not yet a lost virtue——

This question is raised, inferentially, by the challenging discussion and social problems given before the Pan-American Association in Bermuda by Dr. Morris Fishbein, editor of the American Medical Journal. Society has always taken for granted that prolongation of life is a worthy and desirable purpose, and medical science, through brilliant achievements in combatting the ravages of disease, has increased life expectancy and multiplied greatly the number of the aged. But what has society done to meet the conditions arising from the lengthened life span? The net result of this accomplishment is a greater number of aged who lack the necessities of life and who are, in consequence, victims of neglect.

Long life is not a boon when it is attended by want and misery. It is not pleasant to live when all the joys and even the satisfaction of life itself have fled——

Although there is ample evidence all around us that war is barbarous, Italy, a civilized and an enlightened nation, is preparing to wage warfare against Ethiopia, a mere primitive land. Notwithstanding religion is a thing of the spirit, it causes rioting in Ireland, whose people are devout Christians, and persecution in Germany, where Catholics, Protestants and Jews are the victims of oppression. Hindus and Mohammedans clash in India, where many are killed and wounded and thousands are placed under arrest, while in China, the rising waters of the Yellow river inundate villages and towns and sweep men, women and children away to sea. At home a young choir singer, enamored of a 17-year-old girl, sings a hymn, tips a canoe and drowns his wife, the mother of his two children. Now he faces no more inviting a prospect than the electric chair.

Fortunately, however ,there is much charity and kindness in the world to compensate for the hardships and cruelty which seem to be so prevalent——

CONGRESSMAN'S CHANCES ARE NOW IMPAIRED

Bad Faith Of President To Be Resented, Belief Is

AN UPSET IS LIKELY

Incumbent Will Have Bitter Fight When He Runs Again

The Republican Press has, for a great many years, supported Clarence F. Lea, congressman from this district. Up to recently this newspaper believed Congressman Lea could remain in his present post as long as he wanted to. Now, however, it begins to appear as if Congressman Lea will have a terrific fight on his hands at the coming election, if he decides to make the race.

They're After Him.

Because Mr. Lea did not agree to Townsender's ideas he has arrayed the Townsend people against him and there are a constantly increasing number of them in all parts of Congressman Lea's district. It was not long ago the Townsendites were rumored on the point of trying to recall Congressman Lea. When the next election comes along the Townsenders are certain to be, in a body, strongly against Congressman Lea. It is, undoubtedly ,going to be a tough year for Congressman Lea and he will need all support he can obtain.

People Resent It.

The "double crossing" of Congressman Lea by President Roosevelt is not appreciated in California. Fear California would repeat what Rhode Island did and send a Republican to Congress in place of Congressman Lea is believed to have caused the administration to turn Congressman Lea down at the last moment.

TAXES TO BE DUE SEPT. 15

Unsecured Autos Are Facing Penalty By Middle Of Month

All taxes on unsecured personal property will become delinquent September 15, and subject to a penalty of eight per cent. Under the new law passed at the last session of the state legislature, the date was advanced to September 1, instead of the former deadline, December 1, when a 10 per cent penalty was assessed.

An Exception Made.

Due to the 90-day provision on new bills, the law will not be enforced until September 15, this year, it was said.

Asked To Co-operate.

Since most of unsecured personal property of Mendocino county consists of automobiles, Assessor Kirk Ford urges all car owners who have not had their white certificates cleared so far this year to do so at once to avoid paying the eight per cent penalty after September 15.

Truman Bonnifield Family Departing

This week Truman Bonnifield and family leave for Elk, where Mr. Bonnifield, one of the best sheepmen in the country, will assume management of the Clift Ridge Ranch, a concern which controls more than 24,000 acres of range. Cap. Ornbaun was one of the former owners of the property, which lately passed into the control of Callion Beacon and others, of Los Angeles.

GOES TO PENDLETON

Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Bennett, following a visit to the State Fair at Salem, Oregon, will go to Pendleton where Dr. Bennett will officiate as a judge at the Round-Up.

SURVEY COSTS APPROXIMATE -RUN $150,000

Estimate Of Shoreline Route Laying Out Is Found Large

SUM MAY BE RAISED

Federal Aid Will Be Obtained—Convict Camp Probable

Further discussion of proposed plans for a topographical survey of the route of the Shoreline highway, to be made under government survey, was held by supervisors from five northcoast counties at a meeting in Occidental Hotel at Santa Rosa last week.

Local Representation.

The members of the board of supervisors of this county were in attendance and it was decided to proceed in every way possible with the carrying out of a program which will bring about the making of a survey of the route along the coast and afterwards ensure its speedy completion.

Started In City.

The program was opened for discussion at a meeting held in The Palace Hotel, San Francisco, Thursday, at which officers of the geodetic survey disclosed that authority to expend $10,000 in federal funds on the survey had been received provided the amount be matched by the five counties.

Cost Is Large.

Walter H. Nagle, clerk of the Sonoma board ,who represented Sonoma county at the meeting, suggested the group give further study to the plan at the special session in Santa Rosa, after learning the $20,000 would pay the cost of only approximately four square miles of the proposed survey and that the total cost would run in the neighborhood of $150,000.

Sought Delay.

Mr. Nagle pointed out he was

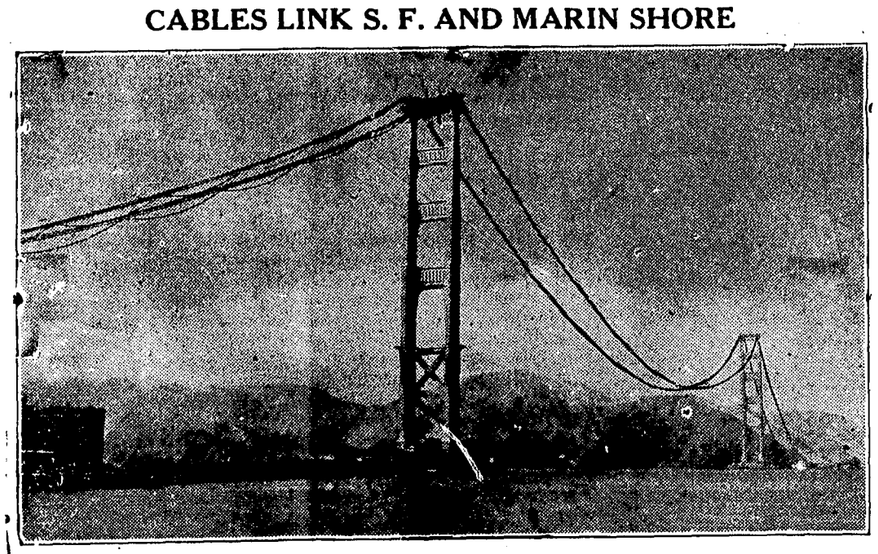
BANK CHANGES

C. W. Goodman, of Oakland, has been added to the bank staff of the Bank of America and George Kroetz has been advanced to the position held by Miss Nettie Taylor retired.

CITY MANAGER GIVEN PRAISE

City Manager Fred L. Bosworth's management of city affairs is once more very fittingly reflected in the 25-cent reduction in city taxes the city announces has been made for the coming year. Manager Bosworth, from the inception of his regime has brought down the cost of running the city business of Ukiah and each year taxpayers find that in Manager Bosworth they have a faithful and competent official.

CABLES LINK S. F. AND MARIN SHORE



Travelers on the San Francisco Bay Ferries may now visualize the Golden Gate Bridge as it will be when completed, following the erection of the 25 catwalk cables across San Francisco's harbor entrance. It is anticipated erection of the catwalks will be completed by the end of this month.

Local Projects Become Involved

To insure Federal aid no matter what changes occur in relief conditions, an application was filed last week with the Federal Bureau of Roads by the state to obtain government funds for construction of the Waldo approach of the Golden Gate Bridge. The state wants assurance that, if improving conditions deplete relief rolls or if the required type of labor cannot be found on relief rolls, contractors on the project can go elsewhere for workers, State Director of Public Works Earl Lee Kelly filed the application. An example of probable difficulties in obtaining the type of labor required, it was pointed out, will be found in the 1000-foot tunnel which will be a part of the approach. Hardrock miners will be needed for the work. The entire project calls for 3½ miles of road and tunnel, the road to contain three traffic lanes and the tunnel four. Tentative estimates set the cost at $3,500,000 with the project to take approximately 700 men off relief rolls. They will have employment on the 30-hour week basis, for at least a year. Mr. Kelly indicated he was confident of Federal approval for the application. Applications were expected to be filed next week for federal aid in constructing four other projects. They include Longvale-Dos Rios-Covelo—part of a jont highway district between Mendocino and Tehama counties, providing a more adequate artery to Round Valley in Mendocino county; the Potter Valley road project, east of Ukiah.

CLOSE RANGE WITH RATTLER

Jack Crawford Had Unusual Experience With Reptile

When Jack Crawford went hunting on the home ranch Sunday he anticipated getting some excitement in his quest for a buck, but what was in store for him was more than he bargained for.

An Unexpected Attack.

He had been out about an hour when he decided to make a short cut across a ravine and stopped under a bush growing close to the side of a gulley, down which he intended going. There was a chilling rattle of a snake and instantly there whizzed past, over Mr. Crawford's stooping shoulder, close to his cheek, the body of a rattlesnake. Mr. Crawford jumped to one side just in time, as the rattler was a fighter and had coiled as soon as it hit the ground and was ready for again striking. Mr. Crawford shot the head off the snake, which was about three feet long and, incidentally, did not get a buck that afternoon.

PHILLIPS HAD A FLATTERING OPENING HERE

Ukiah's Newest Store Given Rael Reception Saturday

CARRIES LARGE STOCK

Finer Merchandise At Sensible Figures Will Be Sold

Ukiah's newest store—Phillips'—opened Saturday and throughout the day was visited by a great many who will prove to be future patrons and a more than expected number of shoppers.

A Handsome Shop.

The excellent work of Contractor Swanfelt has transformed the corner store in the Minetti building on School street into a very lovely shop and Mr. Phillips has seen to the installation of fixtures which very attractively assist in the display of the high class merchandise he carries.

Stock Still Arriving.

While it is true all of the goods had not arrived opening day, the offerings were surprisingly complete, stylish and sensibly priced. Since the store was opened additional shipments have come in and more are reaching Miss Barbara Graham, the efficient store manager. With Miss Graham in catering to the needs of Mendocino county women shoppers is Miss Bettie Plummer who, until recently ,was employed at I. Magnin's, San Francisco.

Attractive Prices.

It is the aim and intention of Mr. Phillips to be able to furnish the very latest merchandise in women's ready-to-wear goods, cloaks, suits and dresses, lingerie, hosiery and corsets at such attractive prices the seasoned shopper will not have to go to the city to obtain what is the vogue because she will be able to do so here and save the cost of a San Francisco trip.

Did The Work.

The electrical fixtures were supplied by R. L. Becker and the re-wiring of the store was also done by Mr. Becker.

A Special Session Is To Be Called

Governor F. F. Merriam has decided definitely to call a special session of the California legislature in January for a last minute effort to balance the budget.

KILLED HIMSELF

John Bertoli, aged 63, a Redwood Valley rancher, suicided by shooting himself in the head with a shotgun Saturday morning. A year ago Mr. Bertoli tried to cut his throat. The body of the unfortunate man was found by John Guntley.

SECOND LARGE FEE AWARDED ATTY. WESSELS

Local Lawyer Is Allowed $4,000 In Copsey Suit

GOT $10,000 LATELY

Unusual Ability And Tenacity Shown In Both Cases

Attorney A. L. Wessels in the past year has done exceptionally well for an attorney during depression times. In the case of Dr. Walter Rappaport, whose claims when declared without merit by some attorneys, were taken up by Attorney Wessels and so successfully prosecuted the State later on was compelled to pay Dr. Rappaport almost $30,000 for having been illegally dismissed as a physician at the Mendocino State Hospital and who for that service received a fee of $10,000, last week repeated in the local superior court and was given a fee of $4000 for what, court papers said, was due "by reason of the persistent efforts and services of Attorney A. L. Wessels" in behalf of his client.

What He Did.

As outlined in The Republican Press six weeks ago Attorney Wessels obtained for Raymond Copsey, World War veteran $11,945 back pension and, in addition, on the policy which was contested, Mr. Copsey will receive the sum of $57.50 throughout his life. This is in addition to $100 a month, Attorney Wessels originally secured for Mr. Copsey.

Bank Was Named.

Lena Copsey resigned as guardian for Raymond Copsey and the court designated The Bank of America guardian for Mr Copsey, the bank to receive the sum of five per cent of the gross income for so acting.

He Kept At It.

Three times in the long litigation for Mr .Copsey's rights Attorney Wessels was decided against, but, finally, persevered.

A FINE DISPLAY

Parties returning from the State Fair assert the exhibit of the California Grape Products Co. is one of the most attractive on the grounds.

P. H. Joseph hurried to San Francisco last week to get first hand data on the new baby which arrived in the home of his daughter and which has caused him to ascend into the grandfather sphere. Mr. Joseph returned entirely satisfied with all of the fine qualities of the latest member of the House of Joseph.

OLD PIONEER RESIDENT DEAD

Mrs. Lillian M. Towle Buried Here Tuesday Afternoon

At Eversole's Mortuary Tuesday last funeral services were held for Mrs. Lillian McClure Towle, whose death occurred Saturday. Deceased was a member of an old Ukiah valley family whose husband, years ago, owned one of the fine ranches in the Talmage section, Mrs. Towle making her home here until 1918.

A Lovable Lady.

All who knew the dead lady remember her as a woman of fine characteristics and loveable disposition.

The Surviving Members.

Members of the family surviving are Misses Nell and Birdie Ganter, Napa, Albert Ganter, Napa, Clarence Ganter, Shasta, Clinton Ganter, Upper Lake, and Mrs. Carrie Ganter Frame, San Francisco. Burial, attended by many local friends, was in the local cemetery.

Joe Wilson Was With Boy Scouts

A card was received last week from Joe Wilson who did the pioneer work here organizing Boy Scout troops, from New York City. Mr. Wilson writes he accompanied the Boy Scouts on the good will trip east.

PATIENT SUICIDED

Using a towel which he tied to the foot of his bed Korbin Schneider, a patient at the State Hospital, Talmage, strangled himself to death Sunday. He was discovered before dead, but efforts to revive him proved to be unavailing.

LAND DEMANDS FOR A FEDERAL HOUSE PUZZLE

Inability To Get Site Close In Conceded By Everyone

FUND FAR TOO SMALL

Report Only $8500 Is Available For The Property Needed

Just where the postoffice site will be selected is provoking a lot of conjectures in Ukiah these days. As said last week in The Republican Press, few lots of the size the government requires are available here. Property which would meet the requirements of the postoffice department in the downtown district are simply not to be had and, even by going into the close-in residential district but one piece of land has been found that would serve, and this particular piece of property is under two ownerships and would necessitate the moving of two houses, one an entire city block and the purchase of a parcel of land on which the residence could be placed.

Part Is Leased.

To add to the complications the owner of one of the houses has a portion of the structure leased and, it is not known whether the party renting this would be willing to continue on as a tenant, if the house were moved farther away from the business section than it is now situated.

Fund Too Small.

Not alone does the lot size hamper a selection but there also has crept into the situation a development which further handicaps things. Excellent authority has informed The Republican Press the government has established a rule that, where purchase of property is made, a sum not to exceed 10 per cent of the total amount set aside by the government in its appropriation for the building and lot on which it stands shall be paid for the lot.

Offer Too Little—Ask Much.

Thus it comes to pass that, as the allottment for a postoffice in Ukiah is $85,000,not more than the sum of $8,500 can be paid for a lot. If this is correct everyone knows not much of a lot the size of that demanded is going to be obtained.

DESPONDENCY BRINGS DEATH

Fort Bragg Man Stated He Would Suicide—I sFound

The body of Tim Dooley was found last week by Deputy Sheriff Ward M. Reis on the ocean beach off the golf course northwest of town. Mr. Dooley was last seen Saturday, so the man's body had apparently been in the water about five days. Mr. Dooley, who was a Spanish-American war veteran is understood to have been despondent of late.

Said He Would Suicide.

He had told friends he was going to commit suicide. When he failed to show up the first of the week his friends became alarmed and started a search for him.

May Lease Upper Floor Of Building

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Scholl will probably take a lease on the upper floor of the A. Sanchez building on South School street and in a portion of the floor space have rooms remodeled in which Mrs. Scholl will conduct a beauty parlor, the balance of the rooms will be made into an apartment in which Mr. and Mrs. Scholl will reside.

SUPPORT THE FAIR

EVERYONE SHOULD SUPPORT the Fair to be held here this month. There is no getting away from the fact Ukiah did not do very well in its original Rodeo venture but there were many reasons why it did not. Had the Rodeo been allowed to continue the business management, which last year conducted it, it would have gotten the affairs of the organization out of the red. As it is the grounds have been sold and now are under private ownership. A privately conducted Rodeo will never succeed. The Fair to be put on this month is the result of local business men not wanting the Fall festival to die.

It will be built up.

No matter in what way you assist the men behind the Fair, it will be worthwhile effort. Attend the shows, exhibit anything you have, talk Fair to everyone and when you are asked to buy tickets do so The money will all stay at home.

NATION'S BACKBONE

C. E. SPEAR, DISTRICT freight agent of the Southern Pacific, spoke in Willows on the deplorable condition of the railroads at the Kiwanis luncheon Wednesday, says The Willows Journal. If some remedial legislation is not enacted, he predicted government ownership would be in order

In spite of all claims to the contrary, the railroads remain the backbone of the nation's transportation system. Other carriers may supplement the rails and perform a valuable service. But it is a limited service. Trucks can handle but a fraction of the nation's freight, and almost none of its heavy, transcontinental freight—wheat, machinery, etc. Busses can provide inexpensive and excellent short-haul passenger service—but the vast bulk of travelers still go by rail when embarking on a journey. There are definite limits to the airplane—its high cost, its relatively sparse coverage of the nation, its inability to handle freight. The waterways are limited by geography and by seasons. In addition, they have proved to be constant money losers, and can only be kept in operation by vast government subsidies.

The railroads touch every portion of the country. They provide service to remote areas, tiny hamlets, little known farming and mining districts. They run on regular schedules. They provide maximum service at a minimum cost. The railroads did much to bring civilization to the wilderness in the beginning of this nation's expanson—they do much to keep civilized places from degenerating back to wilderness now. In addition the railroads are one of our greatest taxpayers, employers, purchasers of supplies. They offer a gigantic market in normal times for lumber, steel, copper, coal. They are a bulwark of all industry—and an essential public servant.

WILL ROGERS' FORTUNE

IN AN INTERESTING explanatory editorial The Chico Enterprise the other day said: The operation of existing and prospective tax-the-rich-laws is illustrated in the share of the Will Rogrs fortune to be taken by the government. The Rogers estate is roughly estimated at $5,000,000 . It may be double and it may be half that amount but those who have some knowledge of it say it is about $5,000,000

If that $5,000,000 is classified by the government as community property, that is property acquired since Mr. and Mrs. Rogers were married, the state of California will claim on the half of the estate owned by the dead humorist about $1,000,000. At the death of Mrs. Rogers, the other half, provided she had retained the property and the present law had not been changed, would be taxed, which would mean, roughly, another million to the state.

If all of President Roosevelt's recommendations regarding the bill to "soak the rich" had been accepted by the senate, and were now law, another $1,500,000 would go to the federal government. Although, under taxation laws now in existence and those which may soon become law, a man of the wealth of Will Rogers can leave to his sons, out of a $5,000,000 estate, only about $1,500,000

"That's enough," is the prompt ejaculation of many who believe in imposing a heavy tax on wealth and distributing the proceeds to the unfortunate, the improvident and the impecunious.

The situation recalls a wisecrack of Will Rogers himself on the subject in his newspaper feature which was to this effect: "The more they've got, the harder they squeal."

When Will Rogers delivered himself of that thought he probably never dreamed his friends ,relatives and heirs would so soon and perhaps with justice be squealing about the part of his hard-earned fortune the state of California and the United States government would be appropriating.

CALIFORNIA BEING OVERRUN

With destitute residents of other states pouring into California at the rate of 1000 per day, drastic measures are to be taken immediately to turn the migratory indigents back to their home states, H. A. R. Carlton, director of the Federal Transient Service, announced last week. "California today is carrying approximately seven per cent of the entire national relief load, one of the heaviest of any state in the union," said Mr. Carlton. "A large part of this load was occasioned by the thousands of penniless families from other states that have literally overrun California. They arrived here virtually penniless and immediately sought relief. The financial strain has been terrific." Mr. Carlton broadcast a warning last week for individuals or families who have insufficient funds to support themselves to "stay away from California." To assure the effectiveness of the warning Mr. Carlton issued the following orders: Shelters will no longer be operated as "hotels" for transients; transients who registered after August 1 will not be considered eligible for WPA projects. Mr. Carlton said destitute persons who are considering migrating to California have the choice of saving the expenses of the trip or of being returned to their home state immediately on arrival at California's borders.

REAL ACTION IS NECESSARY

Quick Shooting Needed As Snake And Buck Appeared

(The Lakeport Press)

George Meyers and Dahl Lynch, of San Francisco, and Harry Corson composed a hunting party that went on Bartlett mountain last week and encountered a buck and a rattlesnake at about the same time.

Had To Hurry.

The snake had crawled out from under a rock and was getting ready to strike as Mr. Meyers aimed at the deer. The men were some distance apart, which necessitated Mr. Meyers taking two shots, killing the deer first and then the snake. It was found to have 11 rattles. The men shot two other rattlers before returning from the trip. One had 10 rattles, and in the excitement the last one was not counted. Mr. Meyers is proud of his buck and is also showing the rattles to friends.

Sidelights of Sadness

Being incidents connected with California's State Prisons as observed by A. R. O'Brien, editor of The Republican Press, who is a director of the State Board of Prisons of California.

THE "WRONGED" MISSIONARY

In the days when I was a newspaperman in foreign countries one of the very first things I learned was the dislike newspapermen entertain for missionaries, of both sexes. In out of the way places where I roamed no newspaperman ever went to a missionary to get relief, rather they sought the nomad and the beach-combers. We were missionary-shy when in trouble.

Accordingly when a wise-looking gazelle in her late thirties appeared before the Parole Board at Tehachapi, while I was looking on, to have her status established and I learned she had been a missionary in China, that later she had been a secretary in Angelus Temple, I grew prejudiced at the start. She had the winning ways of the soul-savers. She was overly nice, but her Christian life, it soon developed, was as full of ups and downs as a corduroy road through a tamarack swamp. How long she was in China she did not say, but her trouble with the law appeared to have started in Los Angeles. She got a confidential job with a too-confiding wholesale automobile dealer. She handled a large amount of money. There came into her life a Mr. X. He was married. He also, to complicate the situation, was in the second-hand automobile business. He flattered the ex-missionary. He told her, when he could get free of his wife, he would marry her. He also got the ex-missionary to "kite credits" for payments of used cars, presumably paid by him to the ex-missionary's boss, to the extent of $8,800.

Came an auditor about this time and the swindle was discovered. Mr. X was resourceful and he got the ex-missionary to stand pat and to put up an unique defense. She was to state her boss had gotten her to take some whiskey and ginger ale, to which she was unaccustomed, that he had thereafter, while she was in a stupor, taken her to her apartment and criminally attacked her. Mr. X figured that, as the boss was married, he would not stand up under that story, but the boss was game and went through with the prosecution. The missionary was convicted, but she did not retract the attack tale nor implicate Mr. X, who had in the meantime promised to "wait until the missionary got out" and then marry her.

Instead Mr. X got rid of his possessions and fled California.

The ex-missionary had only learned her boy friend had "run out" on her a short time before she came into the board room and was her face red? She told the whole story. Related the attack frame-up on her boss had been instigated by Mr. X and outlined how Mr. X had led her along in the thefts from her employer. She was awfully sorry for herself in the board room, "because she was a woman"—She had not given much thought apparently, to the woman whose husband she had robbed and defamed. Probably she went right back to her cell and began reading the Bible.

The religion of missionaries, in many cases, never gets under their skin, newspapermen who meet them in foreign countries will tell you—

I have a haunting hunch the newspapermen are right.

THE WINNER

The man who toils while the next man shirks;
The man who wins is the man who works—
The man who stands in his deep distress
With his head held high in the deadly press—
Is the man who wins.

The man who wins is the man who knows
The value of pain and the worth of woes—
Who a lesson learns from the man who fails,
And a moral finds in his mournful wails;
Is the man who wins.

The man who wins is the man who stays
In the unsought paths and the rocky ways,
And, perhaps, who lingers, now and then,
To help some failure to rise again—
Is the man who wins.

BLUE RIBBON WINNERS MANY

Fine Stock On South Coast Seen At Farm Exhibit Saturday

Special Correspondence of The Press

POINT ARENA, Sept. 3.—Drawing an attendance from many parts of the county, despite the fact this is, probably, the busiest season of the year, the Point Arena-Manchester Farm Centers held its annual stock show and fair at the Farm Center ground Saturday last. There is always something to do and see at these events and the 1935 show was not an exception in any manner. A barbecue, stock display, fine exhibit of flowers, vegetables and farm produce was arranged and the winners were awarded ribbons, suitably lettered.

They Got Awards.

The University of California sent E. H. Regan to act as judge in the stock competitions and he performed his duties in a most satisfactory way. Among the winners were John Moungovan, who received the Farm Center cup for grand champion purebred bull; the Swift cup was awarded John Stornetta for five best two-year-old heifers; John Scaramella's cup was given John Stornetta for the best calf; the Farm Center cup for grand champion grade cow fell to Jas. P. Biaggi; another Farm Center cup was won by John Stornetta for a grand champion purebred cow.

Liked To Step.

A dance, in which local orchestral music was provided, was largely attended and enjoyed. Many who for a long time had not danced and who were somewhat rusty at the start limbered up and remained long hours on the floor.

School Opens.

Two new teachers are employed at the high school, H. M. Ritter and Miss J. M. Hendrickson. It is believed the enrollment, following work on the ranches, necessitated by rush of fall harvesting, will be larger than it was last year.

In Marin Hospital.

Fred Rickert was last week taken to the Ross, Marin county, hospital in a serious condition and later reports are not entirely encouraging. All are hoping for better news soon from the sick man.

Elizabeth and John Biaggi and Doris Gilmore have gone to Berkeley to enroll in the University of California.

Native Sons Dance.

Saturday night there will be a dance given by the Native Sons. It will take place in the Civic Hall and good music will be provided. The public is invited.

Reception Friday.

The Freshmen's reception is to be held Friday evening of this week at the high school and will be an invitational affair.

Visited Invalids.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ross, Sr., motored to Point Arena Thursday afternoon to call on Mr. and Mrs. Mads Iversen who recently returned home from Healdsburg where they have been recovering from an auto accident near Point Arena some months ago which nearly cost both of them their lives.

BANK STARTS A NEW METHOD

'Letter Of Credit' To Be Used In Buying An Automobile

Announcement of a new credit plan for financing the purchase of new and used automobiles on a low-cost basis was made last week by L. M. Giannini, President of Bank of America. The most novel innovation of the plan is the provision for the issuance of a letter of credit to the prospective automobile purchaser, entitling him to shop for his car as a cash buyer.

Best Service, Liberal Terms.

"The principles of automobile financing are now sufficiently well established to permit conservative banks to make this service a part of their regular credit facilities, said Mr. Giannini. "We feel that the financing of automobile purchases offers a safe field for the employment of loanable bank funds, and that the credit of the automobile buyer who deals on an installment basis has been established by his financial record in this state. Believing that the public is entitled to the best possible service and most liberal terms of credit in financing automobile purchases, we are making our Automobile Letter of Credit Plan available to customers and non-customers at all the 425 branches of our bank.

Cost To Be Low.

"We anticipate that the public will be prompt in accepting this new, low-cost means of financing the purchase of automobiles, and that sales of cars thoughout California will be stimulated accordingly."

How It Works.

Details of the bank's Automobile Letter of Credit Plan were explained by F. E. Dickey, Manager of the Ukiah Branch of Bank of America. "The procedure of this new type of financing is simple," he said. "A prospective purchaser of a new or used car applies at any of our branches for the Automobile Letter of Credit. Knowing the approximate value of the car he plans to trade in, or the amount of the down payment he wishes to make, it is merely a matter of arithmetic to determine the balance necessary to obtain the car he desires. An Automobile Letter of Credit is issued for the amount necessary to complete the purchase. This Letter of Credit is in the hands of the purchaser when he selects his car, and permits him to deal as a cash buyer.

Dealer Gets Cash.

"The bank pays the dealer cash for the net balance due him and the buyer then repays the bank in monthly installments, on a cost basis computed on extremely favorable terms. As he makes the purchase with the status of a cash buyer, he need make his credit information available only to the bank. Our new Automobile Letter of Credit Plan already has been announced to the personnel of all branches of Bank of America and has met with an enthusiastic response."

TAX REDUCTION APPRECIATED—ALL CO-OPERATED TO MAKE CUT

Paring Of Costs Met Response Showing Aim To Curtail

ALL SATISFIED

Attorney Chas. Kasch, who is foreman of the grand jury stated to The Republican Press he was well satisfied with the earnest, honest effort that had been made on all sides to bring about reductions in county expenses. Attorney Kasch stated that, with one exception, he had encountered no inclination to refrain from trying to keep county operations down. This one case, he said, would be investigated later.

Seeking to raise a total of $414,140 in taxes for the 1935-36 period or approximately $43,000 more than was spent during the previous year—The increase being made necessary by the demands which will be made on the county treasury by old age pension and indigent relief drains—the county tax rate for areas outside incorporated towns was fixed at $1.47 last week by the Board of Supervisors. The inside rate for incorporated towns was set at $1.17. The difference between the two rates is made up by the general road tax which has been set by the board at 30 cents or 10 cents below the last year rate.

How It Is Used.

The tax rate is based on the following figures for the various county departments:

County General	$ .748
Salaries	.253
Four per cent bonds	.011
Exploitation	.019
Junior College	.019
Unappropriated Reserve	.080
General Reserve	.040
Total inside rate, $1.17
General road tax	.300
Total outside rate	$1.47

Is Not All.

To the above must be added high school special taxes and school bond taxes, both high and elementary, where they exist, to get the correct rate for the respective school districts.

Ask Increase Permit.

Earlier in the month a communication was sent by the Board of Supervisors to the State Board of Equalization in which it was stated the limitation set by law for budget making would have to be increased and explaining the demands for old-age pensions and indigent costs could not be met as the restrictions stood and requesting permission to make an increase. In reply County Auditor Paul M. Mathews received the following letter from the Board of Equalization: "At the last legislative session, a law was enacted to provide for a limitation, but this will not become effective until September 15, 1935. The limitation in the statute (Chapter 356, Statutes of 1935) is in the alternative and, as interpreted by the Attorney General in the opinion mentioned, provides that, if your county has not exhausted its full five per cent increase during the past three years, it may expend an amount equivalent to 115 per cent of the 1932-33 expenditures without any special authority from this board.

Can Go Ahead.

"In the summary of your proposed budget for 1935-36 and the comparative actual expenditures for 1932-33 you indicate that the total expenditures for the current year have been proposed at $414,140, as compared with actual expenditures of $371,465.80 for the year ending June 30, 1933. Since the proposed expenditures are within the 115 per cent limitation and since the county has at no time since 1933 exhausted its full five per cent increase, it would appear that Mendocino county may expend during the current year the full proposed budget without any special authorization from this board."

not authorized to vote for the Sonoma board and suggested action be delayed until Sonoma supervisors could be contacted. The plan met with unanimous approval of the supervisors who represented San Francisco, Marin, Mendocino, Humboldt and Del Norte counties.

What Is Sought.

Sponsors of the Shoreline highway are now seeking a survey of the permanent route which will parallel the Redwood highway.

Seeks Convict Camp.

State Prison Director A. R. O'Brien is working to obtain permission of Governor F. F. Merriam to order establishment of a convict road camp on the Shoreline Highway route, contending its location is remote and employment of convict labor in that section is a comparable case with like projects in other sections of the state where convicts are now engaged in building highways Director O'Brien believes Governor Merriam will be sympathetic and that a camp will be established

Pear Shipments To Be 3400 Cars

Districts from which the remaining pears will be shipped are: Lake county, 400 cars; Mendocino, 50; El Dorado, 250; Placer, 175; Tehachapi, 20. CONGRESSMAN'S CHANCES

The view taken in other places is reflected in the following which not long ago appeared in The Chico Enterprise: "Now that Congressman Clarence F. Lea has been denied by his friend, President Roosevelt, the expected appointment as federal judge apparently because he is more useful to the President in his present position as Democratic congressman and dean of the California delegation in the House, it remains to be seen at the next general election whether the President can get away with such a shift and whether the Republican voters of the First district will stand for it.

Represented California.

"To be sure the Republicans with the Democrats have for 18 years stood for Mr. Lea and re-elected him for term after term. The reason they did so was because he was a good congressman, honest, clean, efficient, high grade and able; standing strongly for tariff measures that were of advantage to this district and all through the woeful prohibition period firm and reliable as an anti-prohibitionist and a staunch supporter of the wine and hop industries, two important industries of his district.

It Will Be Different.

"Now the picture changes a little and Congressman Lea, still able and honest, is presented in the light of one who is more useful to the President in Congress than he would be to the public on a federal bench. When he next shall come before the voters of the district for re-election to his present place, which will be next year, there is a good chance that a strong high grade Republican, representing opposition to the President's New Deal and resentment over the little scheme of the President to keep Mr. Lea in Congress where he can be used by the President to good advantage, might give the incumbent congressman the same kind of a run for the office that a Republican recently did in Rhode Island and, in short ,upset the presidential apple cart.

Must Be Good Man.

"But no common garden variety of Republican aspirant can perform the trick. It will take a real, able and honest Republican to do it. For Mr. Lea has a good record of efficiency to his constituents, a strong personal following and, as has been said, is clean and high grade."

Homework
gets done Faster and Better with an I. E. S. Better Sight Lamp.

Is your child slow about homework? Don't blame him. Perhaps it is the lighting under which he woks. Poor lighting can make his homework unnecessarily difficult. It can cause eyestrain and fatigue, which can eventually result in defective vision.

Why not give him a lamp that is designed to give better light and that is kind to the eyes? The type of study lamp pictued here. It is specifically designed for better seeing by giving better light. A special glass bowl within the shade diffuses the light, removes glare and throws a generous amount of light to the ceiling for general illumination. Costs less than one cent more an evening than the light he is now using. Come in and see this better lamp that costs so little to buy and to use.

Harnessing Electricity to Make Radium

Experimental Laboratory at Round Hill, Mass., Tests Huge Generator

SINCE the discovery eighteen months ago by French physicists Jean-Frédéric Joliot and his wife Irène Curie-Joliot, daughter of the late Marie Curie, of how to make some ordinary elements radioactive, physicists and chemists have attempted to produce sufficient quantities of these elements to try their value in treating malignant diseases such as cancer.

The difficulty, reports The Literary Digest, is that only a few atoms of the element become radioactive under the bombardment of atomic bullets. Two things are needed: higher voltages to increase the number and power of the bombarding particles, and a quick method of separating or concentrating the radioactive atoms after they have received the activating treatment.

Wide World

Electrostatic generator discharge at the experimental station, Round Hill, Mass.

World's Largest Vacuum Tube

At Round Hill, Mass., a huge high-voltage generator, built by Dr. Robert Van de Graaff, of M. I. T., and his associates, Drs. Lester and Chester Van Atta, will undergo bombardment experiments. On the top of two towers are large metal balls which collect the charge generated electrostatically.

Between the balls will be placed the world's largest vacuum tube, a foot in diameter, twenty feet long, divided into five sections. It is provided internally with specially designed metal shields to act like lenses in focusing the highly-charged particles passing through the tube.

Starting from one end, particles, swept along by the enormous voltage, will strike at tremendous velocities a target of the substance to be bombarded at the other end. Electrical pressure up to 7,000,000 volts will be at the command of the physicists.

PRETTY PICTURE PAINTED OF COAST COUNTRY FROM LOOKOUT

Writer In Mendocino Beacon Described Nature As It Is

(The Mendocino Beacon)

It has been my privilege to enjoy two weeks of my vacation on the Greenwood Signal point at Cold Springs Lookout station. For the first time in my life I have been able to bask in perpetual sunshine while others less fortunate were living in fog and dampness. The experience has been so unique and the scenery so wonderful that I thought perhaps it would be of interest to the readers of The Beacon to get some idea of our beautiful Mendocino county as viewed from this station.

Have Proven Worth.

These Lookout stations, which have been established only a few years, have been of almost inestimable value in the prevention of fires in valuable timber lands not only in this county, but throughout the whole state. The stations already established in this county are Cahto Mountain, Iron Peak, Two Rock, Mathison station, Cold Springs and San Hedrin, all of which have been equipped with azimuths. These instruments assist the man on duty to accurately locate the incipient blaze. A report is then telephoned to the State Division of Forestry at Willits which directs suppression crews to the area endangered by the fire.

Can See Nine Counties.

From the Cold Springs station peak nine counties can be seen and approximately 20 miles of shoreline. When a large vessel is visible on the Pacific, a good 10 miles from the station, it appears no larger than the well-known fishing skiff.

An Early Day Target.

Just west of the station stands an immense rock, upon which was established in 1878 a Geodetic survey target. In the year 1895 a more substantial monument was erected on the same spot. Red stains on this same rock give mute testimony of customs of the Indians who once roamed these hills, for these stains are marks left by signal fires built for the purpose of sending messages to other tribes.

Built Up High.

The tower house in which we live is as unique as is everything else connected with this life. It is built on a rocky point 2720 feet in elevation. A cement foundation holds up a very strongly built wooden tower. Every joint has been securely bolted and the roof is fastened at the four corners by iron cables sunk in solid rock or secured by cement dead-ends. The four walls are built low and windows form the rest of the sides. The center of the room is occupied by a platform and high table upon which is placed the Osborn Fire-finder. The four corners of the room serve respectively as kitchen, dining room, bedroom and storeroom. A runway with a stout railing surrounds the whole building and as you walk or sit upon this platform which ever way you look a panorama of wonderful scenery lies before you. To the north or south you view wooded hillsides covered with either virgin timber or cut-over growth. But on the eastern side the more barren hills of the valley lie covered only by dry grass or chamisal. A blue haze rests over these hills and valleys during the day and they form a direct contrast to the cool green slopes and dark green recesses of our redwood area.

A Wonderful Sight.

The early morning scenery is most wonderful when the hills and valleys fairly quiver with shimmering heat waves. Upon our peak a cool breeze blows almost every day but when these zephyrs fail us we are at the mercy of the beating rays of the sun as not a tree of any size grows here since we are some distance above the timber line. Our mountain is covered with low bushes of white thorn, manzanita, madrone, mountain laurel, yerba santa and hazel, none of which grow taller than three or four feet.

Fogs Are General.

Much of the time the fog lies over the ocean and the coast obscuring our view in that direction. The warning call of the Point Arena fog horn is plainly heard while answering whistles from steamers plowing their way through the fog, fill the silent air with their insistent notes. Toward evening the great bank of fog which has hung like a pall over the ocean, comes rolling in to cover the richly tinted hills. The wind, but a gentle breeze up to this time, becomes a heavy gale and the great fog bank rolls into the valleys like billowy masses of ocean foam.

Covers Most All.

First the little dells and valleys between the mountain ridges are filled, then the fog slowly climbs up the slopes completely covering all but the highest peaks. These rugged tips resemble the islands of the sea as their protruding crests stand out from the white masses of fog surrounding them. Then the radiant sun lights the whole scene with tints of glowing pink, lavender and green.

Wonderful Sky Tints.

The afterglow in the eastern sky defies all attempts at description. Not to be outdone by the gorgeous colorings of her master, old Sol, the silver moon in the fullness of her glory comes upon the eastern sky and once more the world becomes a fairy land of beauty and we realize the futility of painting in words the wonders of our natural scenery. Europe has her Alps, South America her Andes, Canada her Rockies; but Mendocino county in her own boundaries has wonderful scenery of both land and sea.

HOP PICKERS STAY ON JOB

Round Valley Workers Prove Faithful In Emergency

Special Correspondence of The Press

COVELO, Sept. 2.—Among former residents visiting their folks here the past week are Lewis Haydon, Vernon Grist, Mrs. Art Lyons and daughter, of Cloverdale, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thaisen (Vivian Lovell) of the Bay region.

To Oil Streets.

Supervisor Duane Bittenbender came in from Willits Friday to see about oiling the streets, which will abate the dust nuisance.

Law Being Violated.

Spotlighting for deer has been noticeable around the edge of the valley.

She Is Popular.

Helen Lowry will return shortly to her studies at Arcata Normal. Helen is one of our prettiest and most deserving girls. She carries with her the good wishes of her home community.

Stayed On Job.

September 3 the Wolf Hop Company will close a most successful season as far as co-operation of the pickers and crew. All but a very few will get the quarter cent bonus promised for staying through the entire season. Quite a number were transferred to the company's hop field at Hopland to help out there. These had their bonus just the same. The hop crop here was smaller than last year's but of good quality. Field crops of all kinds are short this year. Some samples were furnished when a whole bale of hops went by express to New York City last week.

They Are Historic.

Albert Brown, who is firing at the hop kiln, tells interesting anecdotes of the three giant boilers now used as furnaces there. The largest was brought in for the use of the Reservation in 1875, via Eden Valley, by Mr. Pitner. Two enormous oxen worked as wheelers on this heavy load and either three or four horses in the lead. Three of these boilers were purchased from Uncle Sam during the last two years by the Hop Company—one had been used at the Indian school laundry, one to pump with, and one at the Reservation sawmill. Mr. Brown helped haul one of these to its place 30 years ago in June and then helped this June to bring it to the hop ranch where it is used as a furnace. The largest and oldest boiler holds the best heat. It will also be used for apple drying, which is expected to begin about October 1. There is a good crop, if nothing happens.

He'll Know How.

A born hop-picker came to the camp of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis last week. The mother is a daughter of Mary Major, of last year's State Fair project. The little fellow was named Walter Davis, Jr. Both mother and father are expert pickers and with this early start their son should equal them.

Saw New Grandson.

"Grandma" Hazel Cubbler made a flying trip last week to Arcata to see her new grandson, George Caldwell, Jr. He is really a wonderful baby, but Mrs. Cubbler's promotion hasn't aged her perceptibly. This must be baby week. Mrs. Carl Young (Aurilla Osborne) and her tiny son are visiting Great-grandmother Laura Russell, and are they all proud?

Ready For Fair.

Plans are well under way for the Round Valley Fair and Rodeo, September 20 and 21, Friday and Saturday. Among interesting exhibits will be the work of pupils from mountain schools adjacent to Round Valley. Isabelle Spurlock, who is teaching her first school at Mina, hopes to bring her school in for the Fair and the little folks are working earnestly on their exhibit. It isn't the size of the school, it's the spirit of it. It may be remembered that the Long Ridge school in Trinity county won two first prizes at the State Fair last year — one was a creative drawing and one was a charming picture made of butterflies, ferns and pressed flowers. This was a one-room school with eight or nine pupils, Indians; not dismayed by their remoteness, or difficulty in transportation, they made the best of what they had and carefully packed it so it arrived in good order. The Caution mail is packed out on horseback.

He Can Fool 'Em.

Robert Madison, of the Wolf Hop Co., came up from Santa Rosa Saturday for a couple of days. Mr. Madison, who is an expert amateur sleight of hand performer, recently attended a Magicians' Convention at Los Angeles.

A Handsome Affair.

Travelers on the Redwood Highway note a very handsome redwood log gateway where the road turns off to Branscomb at Laytonville. Signs, white posts, etc., direct traffic but the beautiful gateway made of redwood logs with the bark on was erected by community work on the part of both Branscomb and Laytonville, which settlements gave dances to procure necessary funds.

Mrs. Catherine Morrison, who has been in the south some time, has returned to her home on the east side of the valley.

Regret Departure.

Sunday last William Frazier and family moved to Fort Bidewell for the winter where their little Barbara will receive medical treatment at the Government hospital. It is with much regret and deepest sympathy the people of Round Valley see this fine family leave the community and they earnestly hope that spring will see them back on the Reservation where William is one of the leaders.

IN STATE FAIR EXTRAVAGANZA

(C. N. P. A. Service)

Colorful episodes in California's history will be dramatized in a brilliant musical extravaganza, "The Conquest of California," to be presented each evening before the grandstand crowds at the California State Fair, which opens for ten days in Sacramento on August 31. The world's largest outdoor revolving stage is now being erected on the track infield for the spectacle. Rosita Cota, a member of the large professional cast which will take part, is shown preparing for one of the exotic Spanish numbers.

MISFORTUNE'S HAND IS FELT

A Man Burying Little Daughter Lost His Wallet On Way

(The Lakeport Press)

Bronchial pneumonia claimed the life Saturday night at St. Helena Sanitarium of Marlene Janet Price, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Price, of Longview, Washington. Mrs. Price, with the little one was visiting in Lakeport with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lynch, residents of Oregon, who are working in the fruit. The child was but nine months old.

Lost His Purse.

Mr. Price, the father, was notified and came here to complete funeral arrangements. On the way to the cemetery Mr. Price had the misfortune to lose a bill fold which contained $85 in currency, besides his driver's license, receipts and papers, in addition to a number of the baby's pictures. As the latter cannot be replaced, being the only ones he had of the child, he is offering a reward of $25 for return of the bill fold intact.

Many have gone from here already and others will be leaving daily for Sacramento to enjoy the delights and thrills which will greet them at the eighty-first annual California State Fair which is now in full swing. Half a million visitors are expected to join in the great harvest festival which will continue through 10 festive days and nights of prize competitions, conferences, racing, horse shows, extravaganzas and carnival.

To Be The Best.

The forecast of the biggest fair in history is given by the 100 per cent increase in farm machinery exhibits, the 50 per cent increase in the beef cattle and swine shows, the overflow of 200 racing and horse show horses into temporary stalls, and entries from each of the state's 58 counties. A last-minute appraisal showed $10,000 worth of exhibits had been crowded into the 18 big pavilions and barns in the 150-acre state fair park.

Governor Made Address.

Governor Frank F. Merriam officially opened the fair with a golden key while the 125-piece University of California band saluted with "Hail to California." California editors also joined in the opening ceremonies with a press day luncheon in the assembly hall of the Agricultural building.

Great Race Run.

The racing program was off to a spectacular start at 1:30 p. m. opening day with the running of the $2000 Occident trotting stake founded by Governor Stanford, and horse show stars of the west inaugurated their twenty-sixth annual program in the evening.

History Was Outlined.

The dramatic history of the state was unfolded before the grandstand crowds in the evening with the presentation of a new musical extravaganza, "The Conquest of California," produced on the world's largest revolving stage. A fanfare of fireworks preceded the production.

Lake Co. Fruit Not Hurt By First Rain

(The Kelseyville Sun)

The first rain of the season here on Monday brought .10 of an inch, according to the gauge of the Farm Advisor In Cobb Valley it was reported as a downpour. The storm appeared quite general, and is said to have been the earliest storm of consequence indicated by records for the past 60 years There was no damage to fruit here, although there was scurrying at the drying sheds to stack the loaded drying trays for fear of a general rain.

Hiking Clubs At Camp On Coast

(The Mendocino Beacon)

This weekend will find Russian Gulch State Park a lively place when some 150 members of the California Alpine Club of San Francisco and the Contra Costa Hills Club of Oakland will arrive Saturday afternoon for a few days outing at this new park. The members of these clubs will explore the park from one end to the other and on Sunday evening the big joint gathering will be held around a huge bon-fire. The evening will be taken up by dancing and other amusements.

PICKING PEAS

(Round Valley Record)

PROTECT THE POWER LINES

Hard Work Saved The Transmission Wires From Flames

(The Willits News)

Fires in the hills between Willits and Potter Valley have threatened damage to the transmission line of the Central Mendocino County Power Company during the past week, but no interruption in service has resulted, mainly because of the hard fighting crew who stayed on the job practically day and night until the danger was past.

CCC Men Fought Nobly.

Fred Holland and his crew of linemen, assisted by a number of men from the CCC camp, were called out Friday night to fight fires. They stayed on the job continuously until Monday night when they came back for a brief rest, going out again Tuesday afternoon. During the time they were out 1000 acres of mountain range were burned over by fires near the head of Redwood Valley. The weather was hot and the fires made it hotter, but these men kept the fires under control and away from the power line so that not one pole was burned.

Willits Not Inconvenienced.

Willits people suffered no inconvenience, but it is safe to say few realized the hard fight being made out on the line by a small crew of linemen and fire fighters to keep the service going. It was all in the day's work with them.

FORMAL START OF FAIR

who have volunteered to act as barkers. All funds go to the Fair.

Athletics Featured.

There is to be a marvelous '49 Camp.

Street dancing is to be provided and there will be athletic programs in which boxing and wrestling will be featured.

No Published Program.

This year there will be no program solicitation, but every businessman is expected to purchase his quota of tickets, which are selling for $1.00 each.

Stock Coming In.

The Rodeo steers and horses are to be brought in the same as in other years and while it is hoped there will be more than the usual number of cowboys from Mendocino county ranches, there is no bar against professionals competing.

Fat Purses Put Up.

Prizes will be liberal and the rules which have prevailed at all Rodeos here will be followed. The High school band will be in line for the parade each day and will be in attendance at the Rodeo.

IS GOING AWAY

Mrs. Willis White, who for several years has occupied the former home of Mrs. Bert Miller on Standley and Pine streets, was in town looking after the removal of her furniture to Santa Rosa for storage. Mrs. White will return from Santa Rosa today and go to Alder Point to the White ranch.

ARE BUSY THRESHING

(The Mendocino Beacon)

The Nonella threshing machine crew started Monday morning at the Nonella ranch. After finishing there they moved Wednesday evening to the Dougherty ranch, from which place they will go north, stopping at Luzzi's, Dearings, and then continuing to their Navarro Ridge ranch.

AT MORTICIAN CONVENTION

Edward A. Eversole drove to San Francisco Friday and from there went by train to San Diego where he attended the Morticians' Convention held in that city the first of the week. After seeing the Exposition Mr. Eversole will return to Ukiah Sunday.

FROM NEIGHBORING TOWN

Lou Anker, former resident of Ukiah, and now engaged in Willits in the business of mortician, was mingling with old county-seat friends Friday.

Judge Preston asked the court to rule the matter could not be taken up again by the present grand jury but Judge Jones ruled he would leave the case open so, if the present grand jury wanted to investigate the matter, it could do so.

A STOLEN GUN IS PAID FOR

Lake County Owner Got Property Thief Carried Away

(The Willits News)

Chief of Police Jake Thom received word last week a man under arrest in Lake county had admitted he sold a stolen gun to a Willits citizen. Sheriff Taylor Day asked Chief Thom to try and locate the purchaser and get the gun. Chief Thom had no trouble in doing this and the gun was returned to the Lake county authorities.

Bought Stolen Property.

The local man stated he paid $2.50 for the gun, a Colt automatic worth much more. Chief Thom was told the original owner of the gun had agreed to return the $2.50 to the local man when he got his gun back. Just why the owner of the gun should pay to get it back was not explained. It was his property, had been stolen, and he was entitled to get it back at no expense if it could be located. A person who buys stolen property has no recourse under the law for his money.

ONCE AGAIN MAN IS SHOT

"Something Moved," City Hunter Blazed Away At Friend

BAR SUCH MEN

(Santa Rosa Press-Democrat)

A San Francisco man was wounded the other day near Willits by a companion while on a deer-hunting trip. the man who did the shooting is reported to have said that he saw his companion moving in some brush and mistook him for a deer. So he blazed away. Such an act should come under the heading of "criminal negligence." A hunter who goes out and fires a high-powered rifle at any moving object in the brush should be permanently denied a hunting license. Such a man would shoot a doe, or a cow, or any other living thing if he could aim straight enough. It is unlawful to hunt or shoot at any deer not having forked horns. If a hunter's vision is so poor that he cannot distinguish between a deer and a man he most certainly cannot be sure that the thing he is shooting at has horns. Every season several people are shot in California by irresponsible nit-wits. Some means should be found to keep such blundering novices out of the woods.

Another hunter was shot for a deer this week in Mendocino county, but, by good fortune, was not fatally injured, records an article in The Willits News. Charles Huppe, well known ladies' hair dresser of San Francisco, was the victim this time, while his friend, Dr. H. T. Villain, also from San Francisco, was the man who shot him.

Saw Something Move.

Mr. Huppe, Dr. Villain and Arthur Pedrotti, of Oakland, were hunting deer from the hunting lodge of George Fales, near Dos Rios. Dr. Villain saw something move in the brush about 200 yards across a canyon from where he was standing. He was sure it was a deer and fired a shot at the spot. His bullet evidently struck a rock and shattered, a number of the pieces striking Mr. Huppe in the left leg. Mr. Huppe called out he was shot, but evidently no one heard him until he fired three shots from his rifle. Mr. Fales heard these and hurried down to see what was the matter. Mr. Fales put Mr. Huppe on a horse and took him to Dos Rios, from there he was taken to Willits by automobile. He arrived at the hospital Sunday evening, where anti-toxin against tetanus was given him. The next day Dr. Babcock operated to remove the pieces of bullet that had lodged in his leg.

No Action Likely.

He is at present getting along as well a possible. District Attorney Lilburn Gibson was notified of the shooting, but stated his office would take no action in the matter unless the wound should prove fatal, which is not at all likely from present indications. Dr. Villain admitted responsibility for the accident and is doing all he can for his injured friend.
